

Faculty Resources

Resource Type	Description
Audiovisual	Faculty and staff may reserve the use of laptops, data projectors, supplemental films, television units, overhead projectors, and CD players.
Butcher Paper	8 rolls of colored paper to choose from
Copy Center	Students/Student aides are not permitted to use the copy machines at any time.
Databases	Our school subscribes to Opposing Viewpoints. This database compiles a plethora of the most current of information from essays, magazines, newspapers, statistics, court cases to websites and other multimedia. Some features are language translator, cross searches, article excerpts, and a citation generator. The Internet must be available on any computer to use the database. See Catalogs & Databases page for links.
Lamination	Lamination service is available for faculty and staff only. Students are not permitted to use the laminating machine.
Library Catalog	Library material availability can be located using the library catalog.
Library/Computer Lab Use	Classes: You may schedule classes by calling, emailing, or coming by the library. Students must have an objective to fulfill while using the facilities. Teachers must always accompany their classes to the library/computer lab. Individual Students: Please inform the library or computer lab staff before sending a student to the library to ensure available space and supervision.
Pathfinders	Pathfinders are resources listings for a particular subject area. Using pathfinders greatly reduces information search time.
Reserves	Teachers may request books on a particular subject be put on reserve for students. Students will be able to use the resources within the library only until the reserve period has expired.
Videos	Videos are available for checkout to faculty only.
